We certainly have had a lot of new faces at our school this year, and this goes to show the need for more space here at Handley. We are told that next year there will be even more students coming to Handley, and we hope that the increased space in the school plant, as planned by the school board, will ease the situation a great deal. Handley High School will certainly look swell next year.

OUR FAVORITES

Through the leadership of our two outstanding captains and coaches, the 1951 Greyhounds had a very commendable season.

Not only the Greyhounds but the student body as well are grateful to our managers for their assistance and aid to our teams. Bobby Smith and Arthur Allen were our football managers, and B. D. Butler was our basketball manager.

GIRLS SPORTS

Miss Dowdy

Miss Dowdy
Miss June Dowdy, our girls' physical education teacher, has become very close to all of us since she came to Handley in the fall of 1948. We are very grateful and proud that we have such an energetic, loyal, and likeable person as Miss Dowdy to instruct the girls in the rules of fair play.

Some of our girls are taking exercises, so they can better develop that "glamor girl" look.

Our junior girls are taking their daily calisthenics.

Folk Dancing

Since folk dancing is enjoyed by everyone, Miss Dowdy teaches the girls some of the most popular of the folk dances.

Basketball

Basketball is one of the favorite sports enjoyed by the girls. This picture was taken of one of the milder games, usually there are several girls lying on the floor.

Baseball

Right over the plate, Pitcher! Will it be a home-run or possibly a strike-out?

Girls Tennis

Shirley Williams, LaWanda Hammontree, and Patsy Pridgeon are discussing tennis strategy. Due to illness Shirley Williams was not able to represent Handley in girls' doubles. Patsy won the district championship for girls' singles. Laura Hodges and Jimmie Rogbison, not pictured, represented Handley in girls' doubles.

Miss Dowdy is telling Jeannie Davis, Anna Myrl Rutledge, and Patsy Pridgeon—prospective teachers—some of the inside dope of teaching.

CLASS PROPHECY OF 1951

Dear Miss Odell and Mrs. Rhodes:

While I was touring the States checking on my chain of Feed Stores, I happened to pick up the New York Times in Grand Central Station. As I glanced over the columns I noticed a Love-Lorn Article written by the Assistant Editor, DON SANDLIN. On the opposite page JEAN MARSHALL had just gotten a big write-up about her latest art picture called "What Is It?" After this shock I settled down on the bench to recuperate and suddenly I heard a loud blast from the concession stand. I looked over and saw H. L. PROCTOR and ROY MATHIS selling popcorn and peanuts, and right beside the peanut stand was A. B. WATTS selling souvenirs. After I had a short conversation with him, my train to Washington, D. C., was called. I had fifteen minutes until time to leave, so I hurried to the coffee room for a little snack. Of all people to be waiting tables! Why, there was SADA BRYANT and JOYCE DUNN. I was surely happy to meet with these friends. I hurriedly inquired about their jobs and I was told that HERMAN GRIFFIN and MALCOLM ASKINS were the chief cooks and bottle washers in the station's coffee room.

The last call for my train on track 36 was sounded, so I ran fast to catch it. B. D. BUTLER, head conductor, seemed to have quite a lot of time, so we had a long chat. We looked up in time to see JOY LEACH, JO COX, DELIA LEATH, and NELLENE NELSON boarding the same coach, for they were going to Buffalo, New York, to report on their latest trip to the wild and woolly West. They told me of the numerous tours they had made across the Western States for GLENDELL HOWARD'S Bottling Company which features "Burp Special."

As we passed through the suburbs of Albany, we saw an entrance sign to HUGH AND BETTY CRENSHAW'S Turkey Ranch. There were several children playing in the yard.

After I arrived in Albany, I went to The Palmer House for my evening meal. To my surprise, PATSY PRIDGEON, the famed tennis star, who took Gussie Moran's place, was seated with SHIRLEY INGLE, professional designer for Esquire Magazine, at the next table.

We discussed old times at Handley High School and remembered the happy days we had there. Then, deciding that we need some exciting entertainment, we went to the Penguin Club. There we found JOHNNIE (GYPSY ROSE LEE) McLEOD in the spotlight giving the huge crowd a thrill. After her portion of the program, JEANETTE TAYLOR sang "I've Got Tears In My Ears From Lying On MY Back Crying Over You."

The next day as I was enjoying the lovely sights of Albany, who should I meet but ANNA MYRL RUTLEDGE, a Powers Model, No. 111, modeling the newest creation in pedal-pushers and tennis shoes. I needed to find a lawyer's office to file a claim, and I asked her if she could recommend a good firm. I was told that BETTY WALLING, co-partner in the Brewer and Brewer Law Office, would probably be a lot of help.

The following morning my train pulled out for Washington, D. C. This was a short trip and before I knew it, I was arriving at the Washington station. Remembering SARAH GULLEDGE had an office in the International Red Cross Building, I rushed over for a short visit with her. She then insisted I go to see CAROL and BOYD AUSTIN'S new triangle dream house designed and constructed by MENDELL and WENDELL COLE. I was privileged to get to go through the home. Carol told me DIANE BIGGS had just finished the lovely job of interior decorating. During lunch at the Statler, I happened to notice the sign across the street which read, "JUNE HURST Guarantees to Build Muscles in Three Months." Since June was one of my best friends at high school, I was anxious to talk with her. She told me about JUANITA HURST having moved back to the West Coast to be with her husband, now an admiral in the Navy.

Having completed my visits and business in Washington, D. C., I now boarded a plane for Kentucky. There at Louisville, I recalled that JOHN PORTMAN was President of the Bard Wellmont School for Girls. Hurriedly I hailed a cab to the fine school. ARTHUR ALLEN, who is now the American History professor there, greeted me and showed me to John's office.

While discussing the students, John told me of LOIS LANDRUM, who had just received her license to the Curem or Killen hospital, where she is now a doctor. At the same time HELEN GEORGE was given a plaque for being the North's most famed veterinarian at the Blue Grass Stables. He also told me of JOAN LEACH'S trip to Honolulu, Hawaii, where she was to meet her husband who is a captain in the Marines.

Since I had a business appointment with my feed store managers in Fort Wayne, Indiana, I had to catch a train. Accidentally, I got to talk with BILLIE STOREY on the train. She was traveling to meet her husband, now a coach in the University of Indiana. She asked me if I had heard of MARJORIE PARKER'S nursery school in Augusta, Georgia, where she had just finished enrolling her four-hundredth child. She also had some recent information on VIVIAN BUNTON'S Finishing School in Fort Benning, where she has made a remarkable teacher.

After my meeting with the managers I returned to Fort Worth, Texas, where my office and home is located. There JIMMY SMITH was the President of the Window Washers Union and was washing windows at T. W. C., where he saw MARGARETTE TAYLOR, the house mother in the girls dormitory. Across the street PATTY COKE had a Chic Hat Shoppe where VINCENT GILLESPIE was in with his wife to buy a new chapeau. Vincent told Patty that he and his wife were on their way to Indiana to coach basketball at Notre Dame.

Since you were our most patient Senior sponsors, I am sure that you would appreciate knowing the successes of your unusual 1951 Senior class.

The Class President of '51.
